MR. FARLEY ANSWERS DR. PALMER'S LETTER

March 9. 1918.

Editor:—

Please allow me space in your paper for the following extracts from a letter from Dr. W. T. Palmer, and for the statement of facts and figures to which he refers.

Montevallo, Ala., March, 1918.

"Dear Mr. Farley:—

I am writing to express to you my appreciation of your statement of facts and figures as given at the Mass meeting last Wednesday, Feb. 27th." "I hope that you will reduce your statement to writing and give it to every paper in the county for publication."

"Since I have been in this County I have heard nothing but extravagant statements concerning the wholesale corruption practiced by the Board that built the Court House. Your statement shows conclusively that there could not have been much, if any, graft in the erection of that building. I can not understand why such an official statement has not been made long ago."

"As to the expenditures on the Public Roards, I have nothing to say because I am not familiar with the cost of road building nor do I know how much roads have been built. Give the facts to the public and the people will soon know what to condemn and what to approve."

"You have no money for road building. Of course, you can not do anything. Give these facts out to the public, and in a short time the plan suggested by your Board, or some other plan in my opinion will be adopted. You certainly have my warmest sympathy in the very difficult and thankless task that is before you and your associates."

Yours very truly,
T. W. PALMER."

About 1902 or 1903, the Commissoners' Court of which Judge Longshore was then Chairman, recognized the imperative necessity for a new jail. As the County had no money to pay cash for the work the Court contraced with Dob son & Bynum to build the present jail and take County warrants payable in annual installments for a few years. The jail cost about $11,000. Long after the debt had been paid I was often asked if I thought we would ever pay the jail debt.

I have not the records before me but I think a tax of one or two mills was levied each year after the jail was built to raise money for special jail and bridges purposes, and the annual installments of the jail debts were paid that way. Just as they pay the larger part of the taxes now, the railroads and other large corporations and large tax payers paid the larger part of the jail debt.

In 1905 the urgent need of a new Court House became will nigh impartive. The old Court House was entirely inadequate, being too small, some of the County Officers not having offices, and not being in keeping with the county's progress and wealth. The Commissoners' Court decided to build a new Court House. Bids were advertised for and the contract was awarded to B. C. Bynum Construction Company, among a number of bidders. As the County had not money to pay cash, interest bearing warrants were issued in denominations of $500, each payable in future annual installments, the interest on the entire outstanding issue being payable annually.

The original contract called for $71,890 and these warrants were issued bearing 6½ per cent interest, Later it was deemed advisable, and to the best interests of the county, to change plans and specifications, and to make additions to the original contract and a supplementary contract was enterd into and an additional amount of $32,000, principal warrants were issued bearing interest at 6 per cent. Still later, in providing for, and paying for furniture, fixtures, and filing cases and devices for the county officers its was found necessary to issue $10,500 more of principal warrants bearing interest at 6 per cent.

The $71,890 and the $32.000 of warrants were issued to B. C. Bynum Construction Co; $5,250 of the last $10,500 was issued to Texas Seating Co, and $5 ,250 to Art Metal Construction Co., for seats and other furniture and fixtures, and for steel filing cases and various devices for the county officers.

It will be seen that the total cost of the Court House in principal warrants was $114,390. In addition, a warrant for $440 and one for $1,350 in final settlement of the amount due the Contractors under the contract was paid. making the total cost thus shown, $116,180.

It was provided that a levy of not more than 2½ mills should be made each year on all property in the county for the purpose of raising the necessary funds for the payment of all principal warranss and interest coupons falling due each succeeding year, and for road and bridge purposes. This has been done every year since 1905 except one, and I shall refer to that later.

The $71,890 was made payable in annuall instalments of $1,000 to $5,000 running from Feb. 1, 1907 to Feb. 1 1926. The $32,000 was made payable annual installments of $1,000 to $2,500 running from Feb, 1, 1917 to Feb. 1 1930. The $10,500 was made payable in annual installments of $500., running from Feb. 1, 1908 to 1928. It will be seen that an amount of warrants from $1,000 to as high as 8,000 was made payable each year and all the interest on unpaid principal warrants was made payable each year. These payments have always been met promptly except in 1916 and that was because a former Board of Revenue in 1915 failed, on the advice of the attorney for the Board, to make the levy to raise funds to pay the principal warrants and interest coupons falling due in 1916, as a result of which the county has been at considerable expense for attorneys' fees, witness fees, and other court costs besides having its credit impaired by reason of failing to meet its obligations promptly.

Principal warrants amounting to 35,000 of the 71,890 and 3,500 of the 32,000 and 5.000 of the 10,500 have been paid, making 44,000 paid leaving a balance of 70,390 unpaid.

In 1914 the Board of Revenue contracted with Newell Brothers to construct the Shelby County section of the Birmingham-Montgomers Highway and the Pike road from Calera via Columbiana, Wilsonville, Harpersville to Vincent, and from Calera to Montevallo. As the County again had not money to pay cash the Board had to issue interest bearing warrants in payment for the work and as the debt on the contract was a large one it was necessary to contract with a concern large enough and financially strong enough to handle the warrants and carry them as an investment if they did notsell in the financial market.

Class "A" or the first warrants, were issued in denominations of 1,000 each to the amount of 100,000., Class "B" or the second warrants were issued in denominations of 1,000 each to the amount of 100,000., and Class "C" or the third warrants were issued in denominations of 200 and 500 to the amount of 42,200 Class "A" and Class "B" warrants are payable annually in amounts of 5,000, each from 1917 to 1936 except that in 1928, 9,000. and in both 1933 and 1934 3, 000 of Class "B" are bayable. Class "C" are payable 10,200 in 1937, and 8,000 in each of the years 1938, 1939, 1940 and 1941. It will be seen that the last installments of Class "C" falls due in 1941.

The failure of the Board of Revenue in 1915 to make a levy to provided funds for the payment of Court House warrants and interest coupons, and Class "A", "B" and "C" Newell Road warrant interest coupons resulted in suits being brought against the county by holders of Court House warrants and holders of Newell Road warrants.

The suit by holders of Court House warrants has just recently been settled The suit by holders of Newell Road warrants is still pending in the U. S. Court. In that suit the County sets up the idea that some of Class "A" and Class "B" Road warrants were issued without legal and valid consideration, and that the constitutional limit of indebtedness was exceeded in issuing some of Class "B" and all of Class "C" warrants, and that therefore a large amouut of said warrants are illegal and asks the U. S. Court to declare them void.

If only Class "C" warrants are declared void that will leave 200,000 of Newell Road warrants to be paid.

The funds which can be raised by the highest levy that can be made, 2 ½ mills, will not be sufficient to pay Court House warrants and interest Coupons falling due each year for several years to come, and interest on the 200,000 of Newell Road warrants, not to speak of past due Newell Road warrants and past due iuterest coupons on them.

The question now arises, what is the remedy?

It is to settle the suit in the U. S. Court, gettidg as much as possible of the Newell Road warrants declared void on account of exceeding the constitutional limit, then issue bondo in a sufficient amount to pay outstanding Court Court House warrants and the valid Newell Road warrants and interest coupons, and sell these bonds at a lower rate of interest than the Court House warrants and Newell Road warrants bear, say 5 per cent making the bonds payable in 25 or 30 years, thus getting the debt out of way until the taxable values of the County shall have increased so that the levy that can be made will raise funds enough to enable the Board of Revenue to create a sinking fund to pay on the bonds, or what might be better still, refund the bonds when due, using the surplus funds arising from the levy that can be made each year and above the amount necessary to pay interest on the bonds for the improvement and upbuilding of the roads and bridges in the county.

About 35,000 of the balance due on the Corut House bears 6 1-2 per cent interest and the remainder bears 6 per cent and the Newell Road warrants bear 6 per cent. There is unpaid about 70,000 Court House warrants and assuming that we pay 200,000 Road warrants, and assuming the whole indebtedness bears 6 per cent interest the difference between 6 per cent and 5 per cent or 1 per cent on the indebtness would be 2,700 in one year or 67,500 in 25 year. It will be seen the County cauld save 67,500 in 25 years by selling bonds at 5 per cent and paying off warrants bearing 6 per cent interest.

I hope every citizen who reads this will study it seriously and discuss it with other citizens. and be prepared to vote on a bond issue after intelligent study of the question, because an issue of bonds is the only way out of Shelby Counth's unfortunate and deplorable financial difficulties.

Respectfully,
W. L. FARLEY.

MAX LEFKOVITS TO ENLARGE STORE

Max Lefkovits has bought the store next door to the Columbiana Leader from T. J. Weaver, now occupied by the Columbiana Drug Co. Mr. Lefkovits informs us that he is going to add this room to his already large store house, which will enable him to carry a larger stock of goods. He will make the make the change some time in the near future.

University Glee Club

Before a large and appreciative audience, the Glee Club of the University of Alabama made their annual appearance in Birmingham last night at the Tutwiler Hotel. The concert was one of the best ever presented by the Crimson singers and every number of the well arranged program demonstrated the vocal ability of the Club. Joe Hirsh, Robert Gillespy, Charner Batson, Alvin Keller, Charlie Greer and E. H. Blackstone won unstinted praise for their offerings.

Mr. Blackstone proved a signal treat in his comedy song, "I Aint Going to be a fool There Was." He displayed rare ability and was forced to answer several encores. "The Joy Mans Blues," also rendered by Mr. Blackstone made a marked hit. The club quartet, composed of Gillespy, Eyster, Nelson and Blacksone rendered several pleasing numbers in medleys and popular songs.

The mandolin and guitar club which occupied a prominet part on the program, revealed taste and skill. Each of its numbers was especially pleasing. The soloists of the Club acquitted themselves with distinction. On the whole the concert proved highly entertaining. Enough comedy was offered to prevent the performance from becoming tiresome, while the musical offerings were altogether satisfying.—Birmingham Age Herald.

FOR SHERIFF

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for Sheriff of Shelby County, subject to the action of the Republican party,

J. A. JACKSON.

(Paid Political Advertisement.)

It has reached this office from reliable sources that and effort is being made by some of the leaders of the Democratic party to get men to announce as candidates for office in the Republican party even offering a liberal reward. These Democrats hope to get opposition in our party in order to create as much friction as possible, which would give them grounds to bring out an independent ticket after the primary election. A large number of influential Republicans have been approached by the Democrats, but it is with appreciation to know that we have true and honest men in our party, men who vote their convictions, men who know the Democratic party in Shelby County would gladly make targets of them in order to defeat the Republican party. Such tricks might work in Germany, but not in the Repullican purty of Shelby County.

License Notice.

WILSONVILLE BOY BASKETBALL STAR

Onnie R. Hill, son of John F. Hill, Wilsonville, Ala , was one of the basketball stars of the past season at the marine corps training camp, Quantico, Va. He played on the team of the First company, Mobile artillery force, United States marine.

This team finished a successful season by winning second place in the strong Marine Corps league, and third place in the post basketball championship. In addition to their successful finish in their own league, they won six games from teams chosen out side their league for try-out games, and established themselves as one of the strongest of the 35 teams at the Quantico training station.

Young Hill enlisted in the marine corps on May 29, 1917, at the Birmingham recruiting station. After completing his recruit training at marine barracks, Paris Island, S. C., he was chosen for service with the marine in France and transferred to Quantico for special intensive training.—Birmingham Ledger, April 8.

MASON REPLIES TO TOM HEFLIN

Washington, April 6.—Uproarious applause and laughter were given Representative "Billy" Mason Congressman at-large from Illinois in the House, this afternoon when he replied to the attack made upon him yesterday by Representative Heflin. All the Republicans present at the conclusion of the speech kept up the handclapping for full a minute and it was also noticeable from the press galleries that nearly half of the Democrats in attendance also joined in the demonstration. It was a kind of talk that appealed to their risibilities after having listened to the satire and humor Mason put in his remarks.

The Alabama member was not on hand to hear the attack made upon him as he had gone to Greensboro, N. C., to deliver a speech at the Third Liberty Loan meeting.

Just before Mason was to take the floor Representative Britten of Illinois, who also had a lively brush yesterday with Heflin, was endeavoring to get a full attendance so that he could be sure the Alabamian would be present, Representative Oliver announced that his colleague was not in the city. Mason said that was in keeping with Heflin's character, to attack and assail him, and then leave town, and that he had also withheld his remarks of yesterday from record, probably for the purpose of inserting remarks he had not delivered, a thing he had been called down for by the House last year.

Mason declared that Heflin's attack upon him was "cheap, peanut politics," and he had been assailed because he was a Republican—not because he was an unpatriotic, as charged by Heflin. "I am going to answer him," thundered Mason, "I have to get down under his intellectual leather."

Mason next read extracts from a Birmingham newspaper's editorial in reference to Heflin's having sent a 2,800 word telegram to that paper "collect." This caustic comment provoked loud laugther among members.

Referring to a coloquy on the floor between Representatives Burnett and Heflin during the special session of the present Congress over war questions Mason was very bitter declaring that "Heflin had the most patriotic mounth and the most cowardly pair of legs of any man in the United States."

Among other epithets applied to Heflin by Mason were these: "A brave man with large lungs!" "God Almighty never made a man half as brave as he looks." "There are 49 miles of book shelves over here" (pointing in the direction of the Library of Congress) "and they won't hold what he doesn't know."

Mason also ridiculed Heflin's dress and said he usally strutted down the aisles when he came into the hall of the House to see if the ladies in the galleries were observing him.

Small Wreck On Southern Railway

A freight going north on the Southern Railway Sunday night was wrecked just south of the depot at this place between 11 and 12 o'clock. Four cars were thrown from the track and one was completely smashed into kindling wood The track was torn up for a short distace, but the wreck was cleared by 9 o'clock Monday morning so trains could pass. None of the freight crew were injured.

THE GOVERNMENT WHEAT FORCAST

Washington, April 8 —The condition of the winter wheat crop in the United States on April 1 was 78 6 per cent normal against 63.4 per cent on April 1, 1917, 78.3 April 1, 1916. and 83.6 the average condition for the past ten years on April 1, the agriculture department reported today.

This condition forecast a production of 560,000,000 bushels against 418,070,000 bushels estimated production in 1917; and 480,553,000 in 1916.

Liberty War Relic Train

A special Liberty Loan train will arrive at Columbiana over the L. & N. Railroad on Tuesday Apri 30th, at 2:30 p m, and remain here until 4:50. The train will consist of one or two flat cars, baggage car and one tourist sleeper. The special train will be known as "Liberty Loan Exhibit train.'

Don't fail to be here on that date and view the exhibits and hear the speakers.

CULTURE CLUB

The Culture Club enjoyed a most pleasant afternoon with Mrs. R. J. Miles on April 4th.

Vases of irises added to the attraction of the living room. Paul Neyron roses were used to decorate the dinning room where punch was served by Mrs. Acuff.

"The Hawaiian Islands" was the subject for the afernoon. An interesting paper was read by Mrs Haynes. A most enjoyable part of the programe was a vocal duet, "Hawaii I am Lonesome for You," by Mesdames Wallace and Leeper. Hawaiian music on the Victrola was played throughout the after noon.

Several games of Six Hundred were played, Mrs. Wallace having the highest score received a pair of lovely pillow cases. Mrs. Bryan drew the consolation, a skirt hanger. After the games delicious refreshments were served.

STAND LOYAL TO PARTY SAYS STONE

Editor Advocate:

I wish to say throngh your paper that I have an ambition to be Sheriff of Shelby county, and have been urged by a number of my friends to make the race in the coming election, but wish to state I will not be a candidate. We have already a candidate in the field, Mr. J. A. Jackson, a man whom I have known since he was a knee pants boy, in fact both were reared in the same community, and knowing him as I do, I do not think a more honorable or a more deserving man could be nominated by the Republican party. He is well known in the county; he is a true and tried Republican and there is not a more competent man in the county for the position. He has served us one term as Tax Assessor, and his record there as to ability, his services as a servant of the people should have a great bearing in insuring him success in the coming election.

So I wish to urge all my friends, and true party men to stand loyal to our party, that victory may be ours in November.

J. H. STONE.

Green--Harrison

Mr. Dewey Green and Mies Annie Harrison were quitly married at the residence of Rev. and Mrs. T. K. Roberts last Thursday night Rev Roberts officiating. The wedding came as a suprise to their many friends, as they both are still in their teens.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. Oscar Harrison of Helena, and has been attending the High School since last September. She is a beautiful young girl and numbers her friends by the score in Columbiana and Helena. The groom is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Green of this place and is a promising young business man, and is at the present working for the First Naeional Bank in Birmingham. Mr. and Mrs. Green left Saturday for Birmidgham, their future home.

The Advocate joins many friends in wishing this young couple a prosperous and happy voyage through life.

New Plant For Shelby

A by products plant is to be built at Shelby by the Shelby Chemical Company, work to begin on the new plant at an early date. The site for the location of the plant has been surveyed out.

The by-products are to be made from hard woods, such as alcohol, etc., and is to be used by the United States government. Capacity of the plant will be 100 cords of wood per day.

We are informed that about 300 men will be employed in the construction of the plant, and that it will take 150 men to operate the plant. It will be about five months before the plant is put into operation.

If you have the money to spare buy a war bond and help win the war against Germany.

We are going to win the war against Germany it matters not how long it takes to do it.

It pays to advertise your business. Try it and be convinced through the columns of The Advocate.

The citizens of Columbiana are now enjoying vegetables out of their own gardens, the earliest in many years.

Mr. Blackerby informs us that he expects to have his electric light plant in operation before the end of the month.

We are on to the little scheme of the Democrats in this county. Did you notice how a few of them were keeping the road hot a few days ago.

The wheat crop has been badly damaged in this county for the want of rain during the past six weeks, so a goodly number of farmers tell us.

The street leading out towards Calera is badly in need of repairs. Why not make up the money among our citizens and put this street in passable condition at once.

The Columbiana Ore Company which has been getting out ore on the mountain east of town for the past few months, has closed down, but we can't say how for long. But we hope for not any length of time.

If you have paid your poll tax and registered, and your name does not appear on the qualified list of voters published last week call on the Judge of Probate this week and have your name put on the list. There is no doubt but quite a few were omitted from the list through errors but not intentionally.

More food crops and less cotton should be the motto of every farmer in Shelby County this year. We can do without less clothes, but one thing is certain, we have got to have something to eat or starve, and it is up to the farmer to feed the people of the United States, and especially in time of war.

The Democratic party holds the medal when it comes to make promise to the "Dear People" in order to get their votes, but these promises only hold good until after the election is over. We have seen this tried in Shelby County for the past twenty-five years, and we know what we are talking about. Beware of promises from now on by the Democratic candidates.

Don't be misled by a few so called ring leaders of the Democratic party in Shelby County this year. These fellows always make the people many promises at every election in order to get their votes. They have commenced the same old cry this early in the game in order to win your vote. Don't pay any attention to such rot and promises as they are making just now All they are after is your vote. We hope there is not a true Republican in Shelby County that will believe what these few Democrats will tell you during this campaign.

TEACHERS EXAMINATION APRIL 15

The State examination for teachers of Shelby County will be held at the High School building in Columbiana, April, 15--17, 1918.

1. Each applicant must write the examination in the county in which he is living, teaching or attending school, or he must present a written permit from the state Superintendent of Education. In order to secure such permit, the applicant must submit to the State Superintendent at least ten days before the examination, his request bearing the approval of his county supreintendent.

2. Since the examiner is directed to refuse admittance to any applicant whose identity is not clearly established, it is necessary for one who would write the examination where he is unknown to the examiner to arrange for his proper indentification before going to the examination room.

3. Before entering the examination for a life certificate an applicant must make proof that he has held a first grade Alabama certificate for at least five years, sixty months, during which time he has taught a minmium of forty scholastic months.

4. In keeping with a resolution of the county boards of education of Alabama, a list of the applicants rejected because of the use of unfair means in examination will be sent to each county board in the state.

5. All applicants for the validation of certificates from other states, and for issuance of certificates upon basis of graduation, should be made directly to Supt. Spright Dowell, President of the State Board of Examiners.

6. All applicants must be present at 9:30 a. m. Monday April, 15, 1918. Applicants must furnish pens and ink.

S. P. Williamson,
County Supt. of Education.

Over the Top

Over the top-Not in teranches or plain,
Over the top, of a mountains incline;
Beneath was a stream, above the pines,
I sat with a girl, that is truly mine.
Just over the top, just above a pure spring.
We spoke of our love, in language serene;
Our future, our hopes, were simply subline,
As we sat over the top, mid flowers and pines.
Just over the top, my sweetheart and I
Sat close to each other; the up so high;
'Till I felt her hot breath,-Her lips were close by
As we bask in affections, just under the sky.
I held her hot hands, I felt her pure soul,
Just over the top, I'd reached my goal;
With the girl that I love with affections untold,
I kissed her red lips.-Now my story I've told.—Fulton.

Wade's Weekly Letter

NECESSARY CRITICISM

Ordinarily, it is not good for one to indulge too freely in criticism, unless it is presented in a purely psychological, self conscious and kindly manner. A critic is always in danger of becoming self righteous to the extent of finding fault with everybody but himself Such critics never accomplish any good by their criticisms. To accomplish results with criticism, the critic must employ good logic, abstain from self conceit and personal abuse. Some criticism of our habits and present tendencie is necessary and should be taken seriously and corrected before it is too late.

TOO MUCH COTTON

Statistics gathered from the farm of Alabama show a tendency to increase the acreage planted to cot to eighteen per cent, corn five per cent, peanuts fifteen per cent, velvet beans fifteen per cent, and all other crops about the same as last year. Last year was dry and crops were easily cultivated Labor is scarcer and higher this year, therefore, these crop increases can not be successfully maintained through wet season. It is a mistake to increase the cotton crop to this extent in the face of the war and economial conditions. If the dry weather now prevailing shonld extend several weeks further into the season, stands of cotton will be seriously belated. Extreme wet weather may follow this dry spell. With belated stands and wet weather in May and June, cotton in Southern and Central Alabama would hardly make half a crop. This allusion is a form of "Crossing the bridge before we get to it," but certain signs, possibilities and probabilities must be taken into consideration. When approaching an area of bottoms, it is evident that a stream is not far distant and that the bridge must inevitably be approached, if the journey is continued. Again we repeat that too much cotton planting is contemplated under present conditions.

COUNTRY ASLEEP ON WAR

The country people do not read papers extensively and do not have the opportunity of visiting cities or hearing the best informed speakers do not realize why this country is at war. They do not know how dangerously near we are to the loss of liberty and what the loss of this struggle would mean to this country and themselves. I am convinced this country would have remained out of the war if it could have done so and retained its security, rights, and the respect of the nations of the world. We have got to win this war. Criticising, boasting or bluffing will not win it. Food, fight and finance is the slogan. Since food is the first and biggest possible abundance. Your house is not on fire but your country is under fire by the most brutal, feudalistic and cruel enemy the werld has ever known. Wake up! my countrymen, and contribute your best services on farms, battle fields, and invest all you can spare in war stamps and liberty bonds. If life is worth living, it is worth living well. Democracy and liberty must be preserved at any price.

In Memory.

On Monday morning Feb. 25, 1918, the death angel entered the home of Mr. G. C. Miller and claimed for its victim their dear beloved sister, Mrs. Mary Ann Seals.

Her death was a shock to her relatives and many friends. She had suffered fifteen long months with a broken hip She bore her pains without a mummer until the Lord called her. She said that she was ready and willing to answer his call. She was born in Curshaw District, South Carolina, Feb 15th, 1826, and her parents moved to Georgia where they lived until she was 18 years old, and moved to Alabama where she lived the rest of her days. She was well known in Shelby and Chilton Counties.

She joined the missionary Baptist church at the age of 18, at Provindence and lived a true and faithful christian. She leaves behind her two sisters and two brothers, Miss Nancy Miller and Mrs. Sarah James; G. C, Miller and H. Miller, and a host of relatives and friends to mourn her death.

Weep not for her dear brothers and sisters for she is sleeping in Jesus. She was 92 years old her remains were laid to rest in the Shelby Springs cemetery. funeral services was conducted by Rev C. P. Keith.

One who loved her.

FLORIDA BOY SELLS PAPERS TO BUY BONDS

JOHN T. MAXWELL

This 14-year-old youngster of Perry, Taylor county, Florida, is pointing the way to other boys, and men, too, in this national crisis when men and money are needed by the government in the fight against Prussian autocracy. He invested $250 of his earnings from the sale of newspapers in his home town in bonds of the Second Liberty Loan. He accumulated this money without help from his father or anyone else. Since that time he has been saving his money and expects to subscribe to the Third Liberty Loan. John is so proud of his bonds that he has determined to keep on buying just as long as he can earn money and the Government has any bonds to offer.

AMERICA NOT SAFE FROM HUN ATTACK

Germany Determined To Keep Farmers From Shipping Products to European Markets.

Atlanta. — The average Southern farmer, situated far from the seacoast, thinks he is secure even should the Kaiser, in his mad desire for conquest, attempt an invasion of America.

He is enjoying the most prosperous period of his life. Cotton is bringing thirty cents a pound—and more; there is a ready market for hogs and cattle at fancy prices; food crops are being sold at unprecedented prices; and the manufacturers have paid top notch figures for velvet beans and other crops.

It is but natural that the farmer, contented with life, should have no thought of the dangers surrounding him.

"Why should this war worry me?" the farmer asks himself, thinking of the miles of hills and valleys that separate him from the seacoast. "I am not concerned with the 'freedom of the seas' and Germany's right to overrun Belgium, France and Italy. If they should ever send an army here, why I'd fight," he says.

Anything that affects the general welfare of the Country affects the farmer. And the "freedom of the seas"—no other policy established by the United States has been and will be more beneficial to the Southern farmer.

Keep Seas Free.

It was the government's determination to keep the seas free that has enabled the Southern farmer to market his cotton crop for thirty cents a pound instead of six.

When the war is over a steady stream of agricultural products manufactured articles and materials of all kinds will continue to flow to war-stricken Europe. Thousands of vessels will be engaged in this commerce. With a hungry market and plenty of bottoms available, freight rates will be correspondingly lower. The Southern farmer should be as vitally interested in ocean transportation as in rail transportation.

The rugged hills and vast plains will not stop Germany from wiping the commerce off the seas and cutting off the rest of Europe from trade with the Southern farmer. Neither will they protect the farmer should Germany actually invade America. A hostile army would not strike first at the farms. It would attack the seat of government— Washington — situated only a short distance from the sea. And once in control of Washington it would have the reins and from there would force the farmer to do its bidding.

Building Many Ships.

The United States Government has determined to check, not only Germany's greed for territory but its ambition to control the seas. The government has undertaken a shipbuilding program that will supply the vessels for the farmer to send his products to European markets, not only during the war but afterwards. These projects cannot be successfully carried out unless the government is given support by the people. Billions of dollars are needed. The farmer not only displays his patriotism by lending the Government money through subscribing to Liberty Bonds, but protects his future interests.

BARRIER CHECKS INSECT ATTACKS

Bands Prevent Caterpillars, Cutworms and Other Pests From Attacking Trees.

STRIPS OF COTTON BATTING

Sticky Substance Must Be Renewed From Time to Time—Fly Paper Is Sometimes Used—Other Materials Mentioned.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

Bands of sticky material, 4 to 5 inches wide, applied around tree trunks sometimes may be used to advantage to prevent caterpillars, climbing cutworms, and certain other insects from climbing trees. These bands are also employed to prevent nonflying and wingless moths, such as the gipsy moth, cankerworm moths, tussock moths, etc., from ascending trees to deposit their eggs. Cotton batting and wire screen also are used in making protective bands.

Resin-Castor Oil Mixture.

This may be made according to the following formula:

Resin	pounds..	5
Castor oil	pints..	3

Place the resin and castor oil in a pot and heat slowly until the resin is melted. Add more oil if too thick.

These sticky bands are sometimes injurious to the tree, but injury may be avoided by spreading the adhesive on a strip of heavy paper encircling the tree trunk. A form of band that has given satisfactory results is made from cheap cotton batting and single-ply tarred building paper. The cotton should be cut into strips about 2 inches wide and wrapped around the tree trunk so as to fill all the crevices of the bark. Over the cotton is placed a strip of tarred paper about 5 inches wide, drawn tightly and securely tacked where it overlaps. The sticky material is then spread on top of the paper.

The sticky substance must be renewed from time to time, since when it dries out or becomes covered with dust or insects it fails as a barrier to crawling insects. If a combing instrument is occasionally drawn over the band it will serve to lengthen its usefulness by bringing some of the sticky portion to the surface.

Sticky fly paper is used sometimes in place of the sticky bands. This may be attached to the trunk by means of heavy twine tied tightly around the upper and lower edges, and properly should be put over a strip of cotton as described above.

New Tree-Banding Material.

The material described below, applied as a band around the trunk of trees, has been reported as a satisfactory barrier in preventing the ascent of caterpillars.

Materials for Making.

The substances used for making this tree-banding material are: (1) Soft coal-tar pitch; (2) high-boiling neutral coal-tar oil (density about 1.15 at 68 degrees F.); (3) rosin oil (first run "kidney" oil); and (4) stone lime.

Method of Making.

The method of making may be divided into two parts:

Part I. Stock Mixture.

Place a weighed amount of the coal-tar pitch in a suitable cooking vessel and heat until thin enough to run. Then add the neutral coal-tar oil, using twice as much by weight as of the coal-tar pitch, and stir thoroughly. The result should be a mixture which can be poured and worked after cooling.

Part II. Finished Product.

a. Stock mixture (pitch-neutral coal tar oil)	pounds..	5
b. Neutral coal-tar oil	do....	16
c. Slaked lime	do....	4
d. Rosin oil	do....	20
e. Neutral coal-tar oil	do....	10

Place materials a, b, and c in a mixing vessel and stir until of a uniform consistency. Next add the rosin oil and work in for ten minutes, finally adding the additional ten pounds of neutral coal-tar oil. Agitate the mixture thoroughly for 20 to 30 minutes and then transfer it to the storage container and allow it to stand two or three days, or until it becomes a semi-solid cake. Then stir in two pounds of neutral coal-tar oil to each 50 pounds of the mixture in order to give it the desired oily surface. If too soft, add more rosin oil and lime; if too hard, use more neutral coal-tar oil.

This material should be applied on tarred paper strips over cotton bands.

Axle Grease, Fish Oil, and Rosin Banding Material.

A tree-banding material used in Europe, reported as effective, is made as follows:

Axle grease	pound..	1
Fish oil	pint..	1
Powdered rosin	pounds..	5

Heat the axle grease, to remove all of the water contained therein, in a cooking vessel having a capacity of at least one gallon. Then stir in the fish oil and finally the powdered rosin a little at a time. When the latter is dissolved, remove from the fire and the mixture is ready for use the next day. Apply to tarred paper bands as already described.

Several other sticky substances, home-made and proprietary, are used

Printer's Ink.

Printer's ink usually consists of refuse ink and is sold as "tree ink," and should be mixed with a heavy oil to prevent its drying out too quickly. Apply as described for the new tree-banding material.

The indiscriminate use of these bands, as well as mechanical barriers is to be discouraged. Their use in parks is sometimes noted on trees which are not subject to attack by insects against which they would have value. As a rule, it is advisable to obtain advice as to their use from entomologists.

Barriers, other than sticky bands are sometimes used to prevent insects from crawling up trees.

Cotton Batting.

Bands of cotton batting about 6 to 8 inches wide are effective as long as the cotton remains fluffy. Wrap the band around the tree trunk and securely tie the bottom edge by means of stout twine. The upper edge should then be turned down over the string, forming a flange of loose cotton all around the tree.

Barrier of Sticky Material to Stop Insect Pests.

Wire Screen.

Cankerworm moths, tussock moths, gipsy moths, and other nonflying moths may be prevented from crawling up the trees by a wire screen (ordinary fly screen, 12 meshes to the inch) tacked around the tree trunk. Cut the wire screen into strips 12 inches wide and sufficiently long to encircle the trunk. Tack the upper edge of the screen so that it fits snugly to the bark and allow the lower edge to extend out a distance of 1 to 2 inches from the trunk. The moths will crawl up into the screen trap and may be crushed daily by hand. This device, however, does not prevent the ascent of trees by any young larvae hatched from eggs deposited by the captured moths below the barrier, and hence the sticky bands are more effective.

CUTTING BACK OF BRANCHES

Prevents Trees From Growing Too Tall, Condition Making It Hard to Gather Fruit.

(From the United States Department of Agriculture.)

Frequent cutting back of the branches of the tree while it is young prevents the long, bare branches which are so characteristic of old orchard trees. It also prevents the tree from growing too tall—a condition which makes it difficult to gather the fruit or to spray the tree. With the low-headed trees less propping is necessary than with trees having long framework branches. The load of fruit is carried nearer the trunk, and the main structural branches being larger in proportion to their length are therefore better able to carry any load of fruit which the tree may develop.

SAVE A LITTLE SUGAR TODAY.

Why Ice Your Cake?

Icing is not needed. Why not leave it off? Putting cake on a war basis is another way to save sugar without hardship. Thick frosting involves the use of sugar needlessly at this time. Furthermore, many recipes call for excessive amounts of sugar. Try smaller quantities in your cake recipes, etc., and give preference to cakes which are sweetened with molasses or sirup. Housekeepers who have a stock of canned fruit, jellies, and preserves in their cupboard can lessen the sugar consumption by using more of such things for desserts.

MR. SIMPKINS PAYS HIS INCOME TAX

By ROBERT McBLAIR.

Mr. Simpkins gazed at the portrait on the wall till his eyes filled with tears. It was a portrait of his father, Colonel Simpkins, who had four times been promoted for valor during the Civil War and had died bravely on the field of action. Mr. Simpkins' throat ached now for two reasons: First, he reverenced and adored the memory of his father; secondly, his age and his eyes and his game leg wouldn't let him go to war himself. And as he observed the martial bearing and uncompromising gaze of Colonel Simpkins he saw, in imagination, the khaki clad lads of the new generation marching forth and crossing three thousand miles of sea to fight, maybe die, for liberty.

Mr. Simpkins peered around to make sure that neither Bess nor John (who were at the teasing ages of sixteen and seventeen) were where they could see him, then he straightened and threw his right arm up for a salute. But his gouty shoulder twinged, and he groaned. He couldn't even salute.

"Damn!" said Mr. Simpkins, and with his other hand fiercely twirled his white mustachios.

He turned and limped into the library and sat down creakily before the mahogany desk on which were lying the blanks for his income tax statement, blanks which he had rather grumpily got from the Internal Revenue officer only that day after luncheon on his way home from the club.

Mr. Simpkins' income for 1917 had amounted to just about $15,000, and he had been rather snappy on the subject of taxes ever since he had discovered that the more income a man has the greater the percentage of it he pays in taxes. He could think of several men who, like himself, were married and had two children, and yet, although their incomes were nearly half of his, they would pay only a small fraction of the amount he paid. He gloomily drew the blank nearer and began filling in the information that it asked for.

As Mr. Simpkins' income was $15,000 he had to figure out the amounts payable on each of the successive smaller classes of incomes in order to arrive at the total due from himself. He passed over the first class who must pay taxes, that is, single men making over 1,000. His calculation for married men then showed up as follows:

First, they pay 2 per cent. (under the 1916 law) on all income over $4,000, deducting $200 for each of their children under eighteen years. In Mr. Simpkins' case this was $212, which he put down in the "payable" column.

He saw next that, under the 1917 law, married men pay an additional 2 per cent. on all over $2,000—with the same allowance for children. This added $252 to his "payable" column.

He then observed that for every $2,500 jump in his income over $5,000 he had to pay a Surtax, the percentage growing larger with each jump. This was $250 more added to his burden. And on top of all this came an "Excess Profits" tax of 8 per cent. on all "occupation" income over $6,000, making $720 more.

The total, then, he must pay was fourteen hundred and thirty-four dollars.

"Whew!" exclaimed Mr. Simpkins angrily. "There's young Henry Wilkins, who married Jake Johnson's girl, he makes $2,000 and he doesn't pay a cent. of taxes. I guess this is his war as well as mine!"

Thinking of young Henry Wilkins, he remembered that Mrs. Wilkins went every afternoon to make bandages for the Red Cross and that Henry, who was a lawyer, was aiding the Local Draft Board with its questionnaires.

"Well," he admitted to himself, "that makes a difference."

He thought next of Judge Willoughby, whose income was about $8,000.

"He only pays $20," commented Mr. Simpkins, not quite so angrily this time; and then a thought struck him and he sat up rigidly in his chair.

Judge Willoughby's son had been drowned on the Tuscania when it was submarined with the loss of two hundred soldiers.

"Judge Willoughby gave his son to America," muttered Mr. Simpkins.

He leaned forward suddenly and put his face in his hands.

For a long time Mr. Simpkins sat very still in that position. There was no sound in the library except the ticking of the tall clock and an occasional trill of laughter from the children skylarking upstairs. The square of light on the carpet gradually withdrew itself through the window, and first twilight and then darkness settled in about the quiet, white haired, sometimes irascible old man.

Mr. Simpkins was thinking things which he would never afterward speak of, he was thinking things that were too sacred ever to be put into words. But some inkling of his thoughts may be found in his rejoinder to Mrs. Simpkins when that placid lady came in and turned on the lights, and asked him whether he was ready for dinner.

"Judge Willoughby's only son was worth as much as fourteen hundred and thirty-four dollars, wasn't he?" Mr. Simpkins demanded of her.

As his wife, who was not unused to his superficial irritations, watched him in mild astonishment, Mr. Simpkins limped out to the hall and took his old felt hat and silver-headed cane from the hat rack. Letting himself out into the foggy evening, he tapped his way down to the corner, and mailed his income tax statement and check with his own hands.

"Now. God be thanked," said Mr. Simpkins as the lid clanked shut over his missive, "I can do this much for my country, anyhow."

PLAY AT MONTEVALLO APRIL 20-22

The Clifford-Devereux Company, who are to appear at the Alabama Girls Technical School on April 20th and 22nd, playing the best examples of the world's greatest dramatic authors, have established a reputation as the foremost exponents of really and only worth-while drama and proving that the highest degree of popular enjoyment and educational value are possible at one time. Their repertoire this season includes "Arms and the Man" by Bernard Shaw; "The Romances," by Rostand; "Doctor by Compulsion," by Moliere; and "The Bishop's Candlesticks," a thrilling playlet adapted from "Les Miserables."

ZINITA GRAF
With Clifford-Devereux Company

The highest recognition has been accorded the Clifford Devereux Company for their unique and artistic work, as is evidenced by their frequent engagement at Columbia University, University of Virginia, University of West Virginia, University of Georgia, University of Texas, Miami University, and the majority of the leading colleges in the country, including Vassar, Penn State College, etc.

All the members of the company are especially selected for their experience and ability to give adequate interpretation to the exacting characterization, and the interest and laughter which invariably greets their efforts is a tribute to the increasing popularity of this organization which is now enjoying its sixth consecutive season.

GRAND JURY MAKES REPORT

To the Honorable Hugh D. Merrill, Judge of the 7th Judicial Circuit of Alabama:

The Grand Jury empanelled by Your Honor on the 8th, inst., beg to submit the following as our final report:

We herewith return 21 indictments.

We have examined the books and accounts of the various County Officers, as instructed by Your Honor, and find them neatly kept and correct so far as we are able to ascertain.

We have examined the County Poor and find the inmates well cared for and the premises kept in good condition.

We have examined the County Jail and find the prisoners well cared for and the premises in good condition. The Jail should have a good substantial fence built around it to keep outsiders from passing things to the prisoners, and we recommend to the proper authorities that this be attended to at once,

The roads of the county are in bad condition. In many places the bridges are practically down and we understand that the financial condition of the county at this time is such that it is practically impossible to keep the roads and bridges up. If such thing could be done it would be a good idea for the county to issue bonds and retire some of its present indebtness in such away as to get some funds as would enable the Board of Revenue to build up the roads. If it is not done, or some other means adopted the roads in a portion of the county will soon become impassable.

We are glad to know that there is not so much serious crime committed in the county as heretofore. In fact the violation of the criminal laws seems to be decreasing all the time, except the illicit stills which are apperently on the increase. The Sheriff and his Deputies have been very active in ferreting out these offenders and we do thank them for their activity along this line, and we call upon every law abiding citizen of the county to rendered the officers all the assistance possible in finding out and suppressing this crime,

Thanking your Honor for the instruction given us and the vraious officers for their assistance during our deliberations, having finished our work we respectfully ask to be discharged.

James E. Adams,
Foreman.

ROLL OF HONOR

Washinghton, April 11.—Two casualty lists from the American expeditionary forces issued today by the war department containing the names of 234 men killed, wounded or missing in action and dead from wounds, accidents and diseases. The first made public this morning had 124 names including one killed in action, and the second, given out later had 110 names, including 22 men killed in action, the largest number so far reported at one time by General Pershing.

United States To Have Large Army in France

New York, April 11.—America will have 1,500,000 soliders in France by Christmas, according to Sir John Foster Frazier, member of Parliement. In an address here he declared that this had been made possible by the British Admiralty arrannging for the tonnage. He sounded a grave warning against German propaganda. "They have been partly successfnl with it in Italy," he said, "and entirely successful in Russia. We must gard against it.

Don't fail to read the advertisement of The Clifford Devereux Company, which will appear at the A. G. T. I., Montevallo, April 20 and 22. Admission 75 cents, or $2.00 for combination tickets for the three performances.

Local Board Received Notice of New Quota

Shelby County is called upon to furnish 36 men for the current quota. The white men in this call will be sent to Camp Jackson, Columbia, S. C., the colored men to Camp Custer, Battle Creek, Mich.

The call of all men, who are in the new quota, who are actively, completely, and assiduously engaged in the planting or cultivation of crops will be deferred, until the end of the new quota, by directions of The President.

The date for entrainment of the new quota has not been officially received, but it is thought that it will be on or about the 26th, day of April.

Gurnie Blankenship Dies In Colorado

Our community was called on Sunday to bury one of its young men, Gurnie Blankenship, aged 20 who died in the Fort Line Hospital Colorado, last Wednesday. Gurnie joined the Navy more than a year ago and contracted the awful disease, tuberculosis, which was the cause of his death. He was a model young man, and a son of J. A. Blankenship, and numbered his friends by the score. His funeral was conducted by Rev. R. A Kidd and a large crowd attended to show their respect which they had for this noble young man.

He leaves a father, step-mother, four brothers, two sisters, and a host of relatives and friends to mourn his departure.

To one and all we extend our deepest sympathy in this their sad hour of bereavment.

DR. A. T. ROWE PASSES AWAY

Dr. A. T. Rowe one of the best known physicians in Shelby County died at his home in this place last Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

Dr. Rowe had been in declining health for several years, but was able to be out until a few months ago. He had been confined to his room for several week, and on account of his advanced age his death was not unexpected by his relatives and many friends. Dr. Rowe was born in Georgia, June 10, 1835, and when a young man graduated in medicine, and during the war between the states he served four years as a surgeon in the Confederate Army.

Dr. Rowe moved to Columbiana 29 years ago, where he has since resided, and was well known and highly esteemed by everyone.

At the time of his death he was 82 years, 10 month and 4 days old. Dr. Rowe was a christian gentleman, and a member of the Baptist church.

He is survived by his wife and one daughter, Miss Dinnie Mae Rowe.

Funeral services were conducted Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock from the Baptist church by Rev. T. K. Roberts and interment was made in the city cemetary.

The Advocate extends sympathy to the bereaved family.

Public Speaking

There will be an address at Columbiana, April 22nd, at 1 p. m. by Mr. Myron W. Waterman of Washington, D. C., sent by the Federal Farm Loan Bureau in behalf of the Federal Land Bank.

This address will be worth while and hope to have a large crowd to hear him.

Buy a Liberty Bond now.

Have you bought a Liberty Bond?

Let everybody raise all the food crops they can this year.

North Georgia was covered by a blanket of snow last Thursday.

The cold weather last week did much damage to growing crops.

Beware of Democratic tricks again this year in Shelby county.

Cotton has gone down several dollars on the bale during the past few days.

A big frost last Friday morning and gardens were consideably damaged in this section.

Better buy your winter supply of coal this summer if you intend keeping warm next winter.

Raise food or starve is the latest news bulletin. Better raise food crops to keep from starving is the way we see it.

Shelby County will have to furnish 14 white men and 22 negros for army service in the second draft call, which begins after April 26.

We are on to every move made by certain Democrats in this county, and they are going to be closely watched from now until after the election.

It is now possible that Congress may past a law raising the draft age to 40 years. If this law is passed it will mean many more thousand men for war duty.

Politics in Shelby County is warming up a little now, and it won't be a great while before the campaign will get hot, and then hot some more.

Don't be misled by the slick tongue politicians in Shelby County this year. The people of Shelby Coumty, we don't believe, can be fooled any more by these few politicians going over the county just before each election and promising the voters what they will do, if they, the voters, will vote a certain way.

WADE'S SUGGESTION TO FARMERS

ELIMINATE HOLIDAYS.

The shortage of farm labor caused by the draft, migration and increased public works can be offset almost completely by those who are now working on the farms, if they will put in full six days in the week. If you are as patriotic as your friends, brothers and sons, who are putting in seven days and seven nights out of the week fighting Huns or watchfully waiting in the trenches for the next attack, you will not mind six days' peaceful labor on the farms. Ordinally the average farmer or farm hand labors about five days in the week at the most, and that only applied to about three months of the year during the growing season. A long adopted habit of going to town on Saturday mornining to do thirty minutes trading and spending the whole day has seized upon three-fourths of the farming population and has unconsciously become second nature with them, more especially, the colored people. If this waste of time could be saved, it would increase the productive power of the farms nearly twenty per cent and increase the profits of the farmers even more than twenty per cent eliminating many usless expenditures during the idle dsy.

PATRIOTIC APPEAL.

Allow me to appeal to the farmers and labors during this national crisis to put in six full days of effective work each week and attend to the necessary trading in town between rains and on Saturday nights. I appeal to the merchants and business men to encourage the elimination of the Saturday holiday and to arrange for the convenience of the farms to do their trading on Saturday nights. May I ask ministers, teachers, demonstration agents and all other people who are interested in winning this war and defeating the cruel ambitioue Huns to cooperate in this movemeut to eliminate the Saturday holidays and make onr country twenty per cent more efficient.

TO THE HOUSE WIFES.

It is a common occurrence when visitors arrive at the farm homes for the host to stop his work indefinitely to entertain the visitor. If the visitor remains until meal time the good hostess begins at once to draw out the best things to cook and to prepare twice as much as is necessary. This is all wrong and wasteful. The host and hostess should pursue the even tenor of their way and avoid extra labor and extra extravagance when possible. Remember that the visitor is only a person like yourselves and can easily make one meal from that on which you live. The writer has been embarrassed and felt unwelcome and uncomfortable many times when visiting farm homes and seeing the housewives exerting themselves extraordinarily for his comfort and entertainment. It is wrong, especially during this crisis. A patriotic lady or gentleman will not expect it. Others are not worthy of it.

Government Employment For Farm Help

The Government has established a branch Employment Service Office at Birmingham, Ala., in order to aid without charges of any kind in bringing together employers desiring help, and workers seeking place of empleyment. It is believed that this Employment Service can be, and will be, of great advantage in remedying the situation as to farm labor. Therefore, it is urged upon all men desiring to help win the war by working on a farm, and thus increase food production, to immediately communicate with the United States Employment Service 26 North 19th, Street, Birmingham, Ala., Farm Labor Department, advising whether they want to work for wages or on shares of crop, and they can rest assured of being placed very shortly, and can then feel the consciousness that they are doing a very necessary and useful work in producing food and supplies for the country's need, The situation is urgent, the cause is good, and the need is great, so let none delay in enlisting in this work who feel they can better serve their country in this way. All that is necessary is to write a short letter to the above address, stating your age, size famaily, whether white or colored, and giving address.

Also it is the desire ot this Emplopment Service that all employers of farm labor write or wire, their needs, and the wages, or share of crop they offer, to the above address.

Army Call For Twelve Thousand Volunteers

Washington, April 11.—Provost Marshal General Crowder has telegraphed to state govenors asking them to make it known througout their respective states that the army needs about 12 000 men from about 75 different trades and occupations

It was learned today that a call for these men soon to be issued will be in addition to that of last Saturday for the mobilization of 150,000 fighting men on April 26 The estimate of the number of men of special qualifications is only tentative and may be increased to 15,000 or more before the end of the month, as miltary needs dictate.

As is usual when special calls are made, the voluntary induction system will be used so far as possible. Any draft registrant falling within the desired categroy will be given the opportunity of volunteering to his local board for services, but if the required number is not obtained by this method, local boards will induct enough men to fill their quotas.

Reports to the provost marshal general will be made about April 29, it was said and the call is expected to follow within a few days.

SENATOR UNDERWOOD'S OPEN LETTER TO THE DEMOCRATS OF ALABAMA

Warns Party Leaders of Great Danger in Proposed Amendments—Shall Alabama Be Policed by Federal Authorities?

In an open letter to Hon. E. D. Smith, National Committeeman from Alabama, in response to an invitation to attend the mass meeting of Democrats, held in Montgomery April 4th, to oppose the Federal Amendments, Senator Oscar W. Underwood endorsed the calling of the meeting in the form of an open letter to the people of Alabama, in which he gives warning to the danger threatened the Democratic party in the proposed Amendments.

Senator Underwood's Letter

Washington, D. C., March 29, 1918.
Mr. E. D. Smith, Birmingham, Ala.
My Dear Sir:

I am in receipt of your letter and thank you for your invitation to attend the Democratic Convention at Montgomery on the fourth of April, next.

I am in thorough accord with the movement to gather together men who believe in the fundamental principles of the Democratic party and to announce in a platform the expression of their faith to the people of the State on the grave political issues, that now confront us.

The Congress of the United States has submitted to the several states for their ratification an amendment to the Federal Constitution prohibiting the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors throughout the confines of our country and also granting to the Federal government at Washington the power to establish a federal police force in the states and territories of the Union to enforce the terms of the proposed amendment.

House Passes Suff Amendment

The National House of Representatives has also passed a resolution to amend the constitution so as to force upon all the states the mandate that hereafter women shall be granted the right to vote in all elections regardless of the constitutional restrictions now imposed by the states.

This resolution is pending in the Senate with a favorable report and may be acted upon at any time.

The Legislature to be elected in Alabama next November, will therefore have before it for ratification or rejection at least one and possibly two amendments to the Constitution of the United States that seriously change the fundamental law of the land and invade the right of the people of each state to control the making of laws relating to their domestic affairs.

"The powers not delegated to the United States by the Constitution nor prohibited by it to the states are reserved to the states respectively, or to the people." Thus speaks the Tenth amendment to the Constitution of the United States, recognizing the sovereign government of each state in the Union as to all matters that were not delegated expressly to the central government at Washington when the Constitution was adopted.

Revoke Sovereign Powers

It is the intention of the proponents of the pending amendment to in part revoke the sovereign powers reserved to the people to manage their local affairs.

The unrestricted right to control the manufacture and sale of commodities within the state is vested in the people of the state of Alabama unless three-fourths of the states in the Union decide to confer that power on the government at Washington.

The police powers in regard to local matters are exercised by the state through the local county officers and will continue to be exercised in this way unless by the adoption of the proposed amendment the right to invade the home and arrest the person of the citizen is given to a federal police force appointed and directed from the City of Washington.

The absolute control of the franchise was in the beginning left with the states and remains with them except in so far as the Fifteenth Amendment to the Constitution gave to the negro race the opportunity to govern the state. It is proposed to again invade the right of the state and to establish new qualifications for voters under the power of the central government.

Administer Local Affairs Next

How long will it be before we shall be compelled to face proposals to administer our local affairs in relation to all matters affecting the qualifications of voters, the selection of local officers, the powers to control the levy and collection of state and county taxes, and the control of all labor problems by the government of the United States?

The advocates of a central federal government have already advanced these proposals by bills and resolutions or amendments in congress. When we yield the principle of local self-government as to one we may be compelled ultimately to yield them as to all.

If present tendencies are not checked the people of the states will soon be so far removed from an effective control over their local affairs that they will cease to have a real voice in their determination.

It is difficult to discuss a question of government without prejudice and without partisanship when it has become as acute and subject to political alignment as has the issue now presented to the people of Alabama, but we must not forget that the determination of the question involves the fundamental principle of our government, and to reach a mistaken conclusion may in the end lead to the overthrow of the Democratic institutions established and maintained by our patriotic fathers for more than a century.

Grave Crisis

Let us approach this grave crisis with due sense of responsibility and the determination to reach our conclusions from the high standard of principle and not from the dictates of policy or prejudice.

If the prohibition amendment should be ratified it will result in unprecedented conditions in many ways. For the first time in the history of our country it will impose upon the people of one state the controlling power of other states in matters affecting the mode of life and the personal liberty of the individual. It will be an entire departure from the method and object of the prohibition laws heretofore adopted by the states where prohibition statutes have been enacted both in the manner and method of its enforcement and the future right of the citizens to amend or repeal the law.

When you remove the desire and determination of the people of a state to control and manage its domestic policies in accordance with the sentiment of its citizens you inevitably consign to destruction the local government of the state.

Abolish State Lines

Every invasion of the right of the local people to govern themselves weakens the power to resist and leads directly to the abolishment of state lines and the destruction of local self-government.

The issue that confronts the people of Alabama is not whether men shall be temperate in their habits, for temperance is a matter of personal determination. It is not the question as to whether or not the sale of liquor shall be prohibited in the state of Alabama for our state, through legislative enactment, has already determined that question and the enforcement of the law is guarded and protected by every state and federal statute that it is possible to enact to strenuously and rigorously enforce the law.

The Real Issue

The real issue that confronts us is whether the people of Alabama are prepared to surrender to government of the United States the right and power to administer their local affairs and live under a system of laws relating solely to their personal life that may some day be enacted over their protest and against their wishes by majorities coming from other states in the Union.

Mr. Miner in his "Institutes" has well said:

"Let us not forget that while the proper relation of the states to the Union does not now assume the same threatening and fearful aspect it had before the war between the states, it is yet of tremendous political importance, pregnant still with evils or with blessing in the future, according to the way in which it is handled and settled by the generations to come."

I hope that new and dangerous conditions will never confront us but if they must come, let our people not be a party to the establishment of the precedent. If we must drink of the poisoned chalice that may destroy our state integrity, let it be forced upon us by others and not agreed to by the acquiescence of the people of our own state.

Very truly yours,
(Signed) O. W. UNDERWOOD.

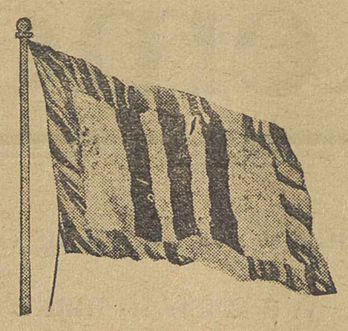
HELP YOUR TOWN WIN THIS FLAG



HOT CONTEST WAGED FOR HONOR FLAG

Every City And County Which Buys Quota Of Liberty Bonds Will Be Given An Attractive Banner

HOT CONTEST.

Atlanta.—States, counties and towns which subscribe their quota of the Third Liberty Loan, will be entitled to an honor flag, just as families who give their sons to the country display a service flag. To impress the fact that a contribution of money toward the winning of the war is quite as essential as the contribution of men, the officials of the treasury department have put this idea into effect.

This is a new idea incorporated in the Liberty Loan honor campaign. There is to be great rivalry all over the United States for the honor of winning one of these flags. Every individual subscriber will have a window card, on which his name is to be inscribed for display from the windows of his residence or place of business.

The new flag has the red border and the white field of the Red Cross membership flag. But instead of the crosses on the field the Liberty Loan flag will have three vertical blue stripes to indicate the number of the loan. Honor flags furnished to cities and towns are to be 36x54 inches and are to be made of the best material as furnished to the navy.

Rivalry is Growing.

A blue star will be inserted on the white field in addition to the stripes if the community doubles its quota. In event that it is tripled or quadrupled, two or three stars will then be added.

Each state which reaches its allotment will receive a large flag. In addition to the stripes, this state flag will also bear on the white field the names of the towns in the state that have completed the required quota. As rapidly as the various towns report, their names will be added.

Over the treasury department building in Washington will float the largest flag of the entire series. This flag will bear the names of the different states which will reach their quota. There will be the liveliest rivalry between every state in the Union to secure the honor of having its name go on this national flag, just as competition between cities and towns will be of the most exciting kind.

The idea that the name of each community is to go down on the state honor flag just as soon as its limit is reached is already being widely discussed. Committees in towns where much rivalry has already existed with neighboring towns are already organizing for a whirlwind campaign in order to beat their rivals to the state honor list. Ambitious towns that are anxious for municipal publicity are catching at the idea with a view of having their success in the campaign flashed throughout the state and Federal Reserve District.

The first town in the United States above two thousand in population which reports to the secretary of the treasury the full subscription of its quota will be signally honored. Its name and achievement will be flashed over the entire country by all press associations, giving the fact of its success. Secretary McAdoo may visit the town in person, and present the honor flag with his own hands to the committee which has been able to lead the nation in the campaign.

With the secretary's party will go motion picture camera men from the Hearst-Pathe News Pictorial, who will make pictures of the presentation ceremonies and other interesting views of the town; and these pictures will be displayed from one end of the country to the other.

Honor Rolls Given Out.

Every community will be furnished with an honor roll to aid the committee in securing subscriptions. This honor roll, a large sheet 25x38 inches, will bear at the top a reproduction of the honor flag, with the words: "Help our town win the right to fly this flag." Below will be left space for the signatures of all those who buy bonds. This honor roll will be similar to that on the state and national service flags.

Just as soon as the full quota is subscribed, and the right to fly the flag has been won, special exercises will be prepared in each community to mark the flag raising. The governors of the states in the Sixth district have learned of the plans with interest, and it is probable that they will be present at the flag raising in their different states.

Practically every committee throughout the district is hard at work with their organizations, making special efforts to land a flag as shortly after the opening of the campaign as possible. The many rivalries which will arise between the towns in this part of the country will be watched with keen interest.

WAR RELIC TRAINS GREETED BY CROWDS

Many Buy Liberty Bonds When They See Horrors Of German Militarism As Shown By Exhibits Now Touring District

Atlanta.—The two special war relic trains being operated though the Sixth Federal Reserve District by the Liberty Loan Committee to stimulate interest in the third bond issue are being greeted with enthusiasms at every stop, according to reports from the superintendents on board. These trains left Atlanta on April 6, one to tour Tennessee, Georgia and Florida, the other to visit points in Alabama, Mississippi and Louisiana.

Each train carries a baggage car and two flat cars laden with relics from the field of battle. Among the relics are parts of aeroplanes which have taken part in some of the most thrilling fights of the war; huge cannons; hand grenades; shells, helmets and a vast collection of photographs showing German atrocities in France and Belgium. The exhibits were collected through the War Department. Some of them were captured from the Germans; others were contributed by the French and British armies.

Many Buy Bonds.

The Government decided to operate the special trains to stimulate interest in the Liberty Loan, although the great demand for transportation equipment has caused a shortage of cars. This is an evidence of the seriousness with which the need for money to finance the war is viewed by Government officials.

At every station the trains have been visited by thousands of people. The farmers especially have been attracted by the exhibit which brings home to them for the first time, in some instances, the horrors of this war. Thousands of dollars have been subscribed by visitors to the trains, showing how the evidences of battle have impressed the people.

Those In Charge.

The trains will be operated through out the campaign and will stop only at the small towns. They are under the direction of the publicity organization of which St. Elmo Massengale is director. W. R. C. Smith, of Atlanta, is directly in charge of the operation of the trains.

The farmer's plea that he has not bought Liberty Bonds because he is helping his country by speeding up food production will not stand. Every manufacturer who is making supplies for the army and navy is doing as much. They're buying bonds, too.

MILL OWNER GETS NEW LIGHT ON PATRIOTISM

Some of the owners of Southern industral plants feel that they have been made to carry their full share of the burden of the war through the income tax and excessive profits laws, but one has been convinced that he is being "let down" rather lightly thus far.

The incident occurred in the directors' room of a bank. The president of a mill, in discussing war finances remarked: "I've paid the Government $45,000 income tax and I don't see how I can invest very heavily in Government bonds."

"How much of the remaining 55 per cent of your income would have accrued under business conditions other than those now existing?" One of his friends asked.

The mill owner seemed perplexed. As all the men in the group were friends the president of the bank mentioned that the mill owner's business had increased 35 per cent during the past year, accordng to the bank records.

"As a matter of fact," his friend remarked, "You have paid but ten per cent on normal business. You haven't been hard hit at all."

The mill owner confessed this was a new view point to him.

The owner of a large mercantile house made a confession at this point. He said his income tax had amounted to $15,000 and he had thought he had done a great deal, but he realized now that he was doing comparatively little.

The mill owner and the merchant both pledged to invest heavily in the Third Liberty Loan to keep their conscience clear toward the Government.

And the others enjoyed a good laugh.

The cycle of money invested in Liberty Bonds is short and complete. The people lend the money to the Government; the Government lends some to our allies; and our Government and our allies straightway spend the money, or the greater portion of it, among the people of the United States. In some instances the money paid in by wage earners on one installment of Liberty Bonds is paid by the Government to their employers and by their employers paid back to them in the way of wages before the next bond installment is due.

The proceeds of the Liberty Loan, including the greater part of that loaned to our allies, are being spent for American products—the products of our factories, our farms, our mines and other industries. In lending to the United States the people are lending to their best and largest customer.

AMERICAN NAVY ELIMINATES WASTE

SLICING BACON ON BATTLESHIP

HOW THEY PEEL POTATOES ABOARD SHIP

JACKIES in the American navy are classed as the best fed body of men in the world. In the ship's galleys every effort is made to eliminate waste.

In the upper photo one of the cooks on the North Dakota is operating a meat slicer that cuts bacon with the least possible wastage. Fat is fuel for fighters. Bacon is badly needed in the allied armies and navies. The allied needs in pork products are 150,000,000 pounds monthly, three times as much as before the war.

Another waste eliminator on the North Dakota is the potato peeler, shown in the lower photo. Nothing is lost except the actual potato skin.

There is a sufficient quantity of potatoes in America for greater use in every home and for all needs of army and navy. Eat more potatoes, eat less wheat.

AMERICANS CAPTURE GERMANS

Washington, April 23.--The Germans claim that the special shock troops, which penetrated into American and French lines in front of the village of Seicheprey last Saturday returned to their position unobserved after fighting that lasted into Sunday, is denied in a dispatch today from France, quoting an official French note. The fighting resulted in complete success for the French and Americans, the note said, the enemy being energetically forced back to his own lines.

The dispatch also discloses that in th eir dashing counter attack which drove the Germans from Seicheprey, the Americans took prisoners.

Will Observe Memorial Day

The Montevallo chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy will observe Memorial Day at 2:30 o'clork, Friday, April 26th, with approriate exercises in the Baptist church. The chief features of the program will be special music led by pupils of the Public School and the A. G. T. I., an oration by a pupil of the Public School, and an address by Mrs. Chappelle Cory of Birmingham, Ala In accordance with the plan of President Wilson, the officers of the chapter are planning to impress on that day the importance of the Liberty Loan, and to that end hope to have as speaker for it a man who has seen services in the trenches of Europe and who knows from experience the need of money for the allies. All interested in those who died for the Lost Cause as well as in those who are fighting in this great war are invited to the exercises.

May Raise Age To 40

Washington, April 22.—Holding up England's action in raising the draft age to 50 years as an example members af the House Military Affairs Committee were planning today to make a vigrous fight to raise the draft age in the United States to 40, when the legislation for registering those who have become 21 since last June 5 comes up for consideration.

Public School Goes "Over The Top"

Pupils of the Public School have shown their patriotism this week by buying $50 worth of War Saving Stamps. During the past term they have been doing the janitor's work at the school and have saved $50 with which to buy a slide for their playgrounds. When the principal suggested that they deny themselves the pleasure for a few monthe, of the slide and buy War Saving Stamps, every hand went up, some held up both, indicating their delight in being able to really help Uncle Sam in the burden of the war. Parents may justly feel proud of these boys and girls.

Liberty Loan

Shelby County has done well in its subscriptions for Liberty Bonds, but we can do much more. Many of our citizens have not yet been asked for any. We are anxious for every man, woman and child who can possible arrange to pay for bonds to take some, We should present a solid front to the enemy and let the world know Shelby County is loyal through and through. The various commnity committee are urged to make a house to house canvass and ask every one to subscribe.

We are required to send to headquarters a list of subscribers and also a list of those who are able to subscribers and also a list of those who are able to subscribe and have not done so. We do not want to show up a single slacker in our County.

Fellow citizens, this is not only one of the best and safest investments for you, but a chance to help your country and our boys who have gone to the front.

THE MONTGOMERY CONVENTION PASSED STRONG RESOLUTIONS FOR PRESERVATION STATE RIGHTS

FORNEY JOHNSTON, ELOQUENTLY READS PLAN OF CAMPAIGN FOR DEFEAT OF EFFORT TO DESTROY FUNDAMENTAL PRINCIPLE OF CONSTITUTIONAL GOVERNMENT—NO CHANGE TO BE MADE IN PRESENT PROHIBITION LAWS.

An Address To The Democrats Of Alabama.

As Democrats of the sovereign State of Alabama, assembled in mass meeting at Montgomery to reassert our loyalty to the one fundamental and unchangeable principle of Constitutional government which has kept America free, preserved the civilization of the South and builded a nation to which the embattled free people of the world look for deliverance, we do solemnly declare:

Loyalty To The Nation.

The first and continuing obligation of every inhabitant of Alabama is undivided loyalty to the United States in the tragic struggle in Europe and upon the high seas for the right of self-government and human liberty. To the support of its armies and its aims in the war and to the defeat of the barbarism in morals, in government and in the sinister usages of peace practiced by the German Federation, we pledge our lives, our fortunes and our sacred honors, with the same high spirit with which the great Democrats of the Revolution dedicated themselves to the war of liberation from the oppression of George the Third the half mad German monarch who sat upon the British throne.

The Constitution.

To the Constitution of the United States, drafted by the most extraordinary body of men ever gathered to frame a charter for free people, adopted by the several States without coercion from sister States, we renew our allegiance. It stands today as the model of popular government throughout the world. It has made us a great nation and has supplied the American people with a tradition and steadfastness more enduring than traditions of loyalty to privileged classes, royal houses or titled dynasties. It stands, with those amendments adopted by free States without coercion from Federal bayonets, as the outstanding and inspiring accomplishment of the American people.

The Democratic Party.

We assert that the foremost agency in formulating and in maintaining the Constitution free from autocratic change by legislation and construction is and has been the Democratic party and its founders.

Driven out of power in 1801 upon the issue of Federal aggression of power the Federalist party, that arch enemy of Democracy, disappeared from American politics, carrying with it into oblivion all open contempt for the people, all declared advocacy of centralization—a treasonable doctrine supported since that day solely by those who have sought speculation in public lands, in tariff outrages, in the exploitation of public resources and in encouraging great Federal establishments for power or private gain. Until today those sinister agencies have never dared to seek sanctuary under the banner of Democracy.

Platforms.

From the defeat and the destruction of the Federalist party in 1801 by the Democrats led by Jefferson to the declaration of faith on which Woodrow Wilson became President of the United States the Democratic party has denounced Federal aggression of local power. It has asserted in every platform in its history of more than one hundred years that the one fundamental and unchanging maxim of American freedom is that the States must not be subordinated in their internal governance to Federal authority.

The War And The States.

The Supreme Court of the United States declared for all time in the Slaughterhouse Case that the Civil War amendments did not impair the sovereignty of the States and that the Court "proposed to hold with a steady and an even hand the balance between State and Federal power."

The Fundamental Principle.

The Democratic party has survived for more than a century under that single principle, and stands today the most ancient, steadfast and noblest political organization for high purposes on the face of the earth. It is the one party in the history of the world which has survived by its adherence to an ideal as against a succession of parties sustained by interests working under cover for Federal aggression.

To that party we renew our allegiance and to its elder statesmen, canonized by succeeding generations for conspicuous service in establishing popular government on the earth our proud acknowledgments.

We denounce the proposed amendment as treason to the party, as an unconditional surrender of sovereignty by the State, as a tool for Federal profiteers bent on robber tariffs and the exploitation of centralized finance, public works and governmental establishments, and as a measure being forced by methods which, we regret to say, have not been equalled since the enforced and fraudulent ratification of the Fifteenth Amendment by the aid of spotted Legislatures and Federal bayonets.

The German Blot.

That is the single German blot upon the Constitution of the United States—the Fifteenth Amendment. Out of it has sprung the menace to Southern civilization. Conceived to maintain the Republican party in power with its spawn of Civil Rights and Force Bills it was forced on the State, under the momentum, the power and the venom of war. It was never ratified in Alabama, even by her carpet-baggers and scalawags then in power. Its twin sister now confronts the people of Alabama—forced on the States in the time of America's supreme peril, pressed through Southern Legislatures by methods which have given no opportunity for their people to be heard—by leaders arrogantly reasserting the doctrine of Hamilton's that "the people! Why, Sir, Your People is a Beast."

The proposed Eighteenth Amendment stands to day alone among the written constitutions of the great nations of the earth as the only other threatened instance of Federal interference with local and domestic concerns. The Constitution of the German Empire contains no such out worn and distredited menace to popular government.

Conflicting Jurisdiction.

It attempts to confer concurrent jurisdiction and concurrent sovereignty upon two independent authorities for the first time in the history of any republic. The free people of the earth have applauded and pledged success to the Serbian people for repudiating the doctrine of hybrid and concurrent sovereignty; but this amendment, made up of traffics and compromises, discovers a monstrous, bi-sexual sovereignty, inviting conflicting legislation, conflicting jurisdictions, with neither paramount, and fatal conflicts in administration.

Espionage and Extradition.

For the first time in the history of the American people it would permit petty or ignorant offenders against police provisions to be removed without extradition for trial in alien jurisdictions. It would open the home to Federal spies and agents. And with the permanent return to power of the Republican administrations which are sure to follow its blood-sister, the suffrage amendment, Alabama will again be dealing with the scalawag and his brood. It would give Congress the power for the first time in over one hundred and forty years to force the governors of sovereign states to honor requisitions and destroy the discretion now vested in the executive to prevent oppression and abuse.

Death of Liquor Traffic.

We denounce the amendment as unnecessary in Alabama, ever were prohibition in Alabama not upon the statute books. The organized liquor traffic in Alabama is as dead as the men who lived before the flood. The great proportion of licensed dealers have accepted the status of suppression of saloons and have taken up their work in occupations more consistent with the spirit of the age. We assert that there is no harmful agency so easy to combat, to curb and to suppress, state by state, under the enlightened action of self-governing people, as the local liquor traffic; and we denounce as libellous the assertion that Alabama is unequal or unwilling to assume or to continue the task, or that it is the purpose or intent of this meeting or of the war we are now declaring on Federal Junkerism to restore the licensed sale of liquor to Alabama, or to give aid or comfort to the liquor traffic. In protecting the one fundamental Democratic principle, the Democrats of Alabama owe apology to no man.

Constitutions and Police Regulations.

We do further denounce the pending effort to destroy the unity of our people, the integrity and demonstrated safety of our state and federal system and humiliate the American people with the exaltation of a police measure leveled at sots and weaklings to the plane of the great maxims of civil liberty and government which have been carried into the great constitutions of the world, proven by martyrdom and ennobled by the blood of free people. The amazing spectacle of self-governing Americans submitting their necks to a yoke designed for police court culprits and blasphemously calling it "the greatest boon vouchsafed to mankind since the Babe of Bethlehem" is a confession of degradation and weakness which we protest against in the name of the great principles of human freedom now besieged by the apostles of Autocratic and Central power on the continent of Europe and in the United States of America.

Scalawags and the Churches in 1867.

We denounce the practice of hiring alien speakers, men without a state, to conduct propaganda for universal suffrage, universal marriage laws and like Federal menaces, in this commonwealth of Christian citizens under cover of prohibition; and we protest against the use of profanation of houses of God for their work. We appeal from the ill-omened precedent of the '69's, when foreign corruptionists and scalawags made use of the negro churches of the state for their renegade meetings, to the glorious example of the men of God of that day who declined the free use of their temples when tendered by the invader subject to the condition that they would hold "loyal" services and invoke the blessings of God upon the Federal vandals then in authority.

The Mantle of the Constitution.

We admonish our people that naught save the majesty of the great Charter spread like a mantle over the land, could have healed the wounds of Federal aggression after the Civil War. The doctrine of state sovereignty, indomitably sustained by the supreme court of the United States, wiped out the stain of corruption, vandalism confiscation and outrage for which a Federal congress stood sponsor. We admonish our people that no power under the sun preserved the South from massacre or hybridization except the single principle of state sovereignty over internal affairs now being bartered for a Federal police regulation already within the plenary power of the state.

The Bulwark of Progress and Safety.

We warn the Democrats of Alabama that principles of government cannot be deflowered or compromised and remain principles. A principle that has protected the chastity of our women against Federal interference, that has preserved the purity of southern blood from unspeakable pollution, that has carried us, by its high appeal to the right of self-determination, over the shoals of force bills and Crumpacker resolutions and has permitted us to wash our hands of ballot stuffing; that has given to Alabama, to her courts, to her statesmen and to her people the privilege of experiment and self-reliant progress and a place of honor among her sister states and in the nation, is no principle to be thrown into the discard at the behest of alien influences.

Constitutional Government and Participation by the People.

Central authority is of necessity autocratic. The success and safety of a constitutional government lies in a wide participation by the people in their local governments. Every local function surrendered to remote central authority with local initiative and resistance, suppresses the great schools of experiment in forty-eight states and immeasurably increases the central power.

In what respect has the Federal government anticipated the free people of the states in enlightened legislation? Alabama had her employers' liability act for over twenty-five years before Congress put one in effect among interstate carriers. The principle of rate regulation was developed by the experience of states. Prohiibtion itself came from the states. From the testing ground of the states came the essential principles of the constitution itself, and from the same source have come the enlightened legislative policies of the nation. As asserted by the British Ambassador, the relation of the states with the national government has received the unqualified admiration of the whole world. That is the status, the opportunity and the glory which Alabamians are asked to destroy!

Warning to Invaders.

We warn our people that the adoption of this amendment means Federal suffrage, whether the Federal amendists in Alabama profess opposition or not; that Federal suffrage means universal suffrage, or the reduction of representation; that the close of this war will release a rapacity for control of the vast Federal organism faintly forecast by Republican gluttony after the Civil War, and that the black ballot, male and female, in the border states and controlling the electoral college, will be the prize for Republican and western cajolery in Congress.

This mass meeting expresses no attitude on the question of women suffrage in Alabama, but it vehemently repudiates the doctrine of this amendment which breaks down the barrier to Federal and universal suffrage. We propose to stand by the Southern darkey and accord him fair treatment and opportunity, but we assert that this is a white man's state and that universal suffrage, hybrid government and defensive ballot stuffing shall not be forced in its borders without a reckoning.

Policy on Prohibition Laws.

We compromise no principles and trade with no enemy, yet so foreign to the purpose of this meeting and so immaterial to the great question involved is the question of prohibition that we pledge all Democrats in Alabama assenting to these resolutions, now and for all time, to the withdrawal of the liquor issue as a partisan asset by adherence to a program of opposition to any measure changing any existing general policy, unless conditioned on approval by the people at a general election; but without limitation upon the right or duty of legislators to strengthen and supplement existing laws to assure their rigid observance.

The Hand of Jacob.

We do most earnestly warn the people of Alabama against the sinister forces working behind this amendment for Federal centralization; for profit in Federal establishments, and in the control of Federal patronage; for the absorption into a Federal system of the great taxable properties, leaving them immune from local and State taxation; against the "tariffs of abominations" which constitute a part of this program—in short, against the certain evils of central oppression and the certain dissolution of the State governments which the anti-Democrats responsible for this measure have set in motion.

Federal Kultur.

We denounce the spirit of Prussianism, of Federal "Kultur" behind this amendment; the Prussian method of its proposal to the states and of its enforced passage without fair opportunity for instructions from the people; its treasonable assertion in a time of national peril, when the nation must be united against the Blond Beast of War; and we denounce the intolerant attacks being made by the hired men who owe allegiance only to their pay master, in their abuse of citizens whose lives, whose fortunes and affections are in and for their native State

Call to Arms.

We count upon the militant assistance of every genuine Democrat in Alabama in the fight to defeat this amendment and any companion piece of Federal aggression which may be proposed. We assert that no citizen can fairly and honorably enter the Democratic primary for the purpose of voting into existence a measure so destructive of the one essential principle of Democratic faith. We demand of those servants of the party upon the State Committee who have evaded the petition of Democrats for a direct vote on this question that they give the Democrats of Alabama a hearing that they require sworn loyalty to the party's fundamental principles as a condition by candidates or electors, or else that they resign their duties to Democrats who will execute the trust.

In conclusion we do solemnly pledge our united efforts, over all personal interest, to the defeat of the proposed amendment and to the recall by subsequent legislatures of any resolution of the Legislature of 1919 ratifying the same, which shall not be conditioned upon the approval of such resolution by a majority of the electors of Alabama at a general election.

In witness of the purity of our motives and in aid of our high endeavor we call upon the God of our fathers and invoke the aid of all Democrats who respect constitutional liberty and possess the manhood essential to self-government.—Paid political advertisement by State Anti-Amendment Campaign Committee.
